

students and tutor. You will be asked to share your ideas and views in the class and work with the group to give and accept feedback in a supportive environment. The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you to be actively involved in your learning. You may be asked to undertake work to support your course outside of your class.

By the end of the course I should be able to:

Identify and have knowledge of a range of key protests held in the Manchester.
Have gained a better insight into the process of historical change.
Explore and debate historical and political questions.
Reflect on personal beliefs and opinions.

How will I know I'm making progress?

Ongoing feedback in light of discussions, questions, and opinions. Individual feedback via email.

What else do I need to know, do or bring?

None required

Reading and information sources

Printed materials are available for all on enrollment. An email of reading lists will be sent out ahead of course starting. The best book to read is, The Vote: How It Was Won and How It Was Undermined, by Paul Foot.)

What could the course lead to?

Personal research

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Services for Students here <http://www.wea.org.uk/courses/information> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your first course you accept a learning agreement (the tear-off portion of your enrolment form). This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
