

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. Define the key differences between European cinema and Hollywood.
2. Understand the historical factors involved in the development of European cinema.
3. Identify the key movements which helped shape European cinema.
4. Recognise the major directors of European cinema and their individual styles.
5. Watch a European film with greater insight and enjoyment.

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion
- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- Nothing else is needed
- A willingness to watch and discuss films!

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No pre reading or pre course work is required
- No pre reading is required but research on the subject on the internet or in the library may be helpful
- Watching any European film would be useful! Among the key films on the course are: The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari (1919); L'Age d'Or (1930); Rome - Open City (1945); The Seventh Seal (1957); Breathless (1959); Jules et Jim (1961); Fellini's 8 1/2 (1963); La Haine (1995); Amelie (2001).

Possible next steps after this course (including career opportunities if appropriate)

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
