Course Aim

This taster session will offer learners a brief introduction into using ink as a drawing medium.

Course Description

This taster course will offer a brief introduction to working with ink as a drawing medium. You will have the chance to explore the possibilities of mark making and ink wash using a brush and also create a variety of tones within a work. The intended outcome is to produce a drawing at the of the session. You may also be interested in other similar tasters; Drawing Workshop with Charcoal C3532269 and Drawing Workshop with Pencil C3532267. If you would like to join a longer course you can sign up to Drawing Workshop C3532274

Do I need any particular skills or experience?

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. Produce an ink drawing
2. Be able to make a variety of tones using ink.
3. Be able to make a variety of marks using ink.
4. Reflect on their own achievements.

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
