

- Homework- usually writing, occasionally reading - will be given weekly for those who wish to complete it.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion
- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor
- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning
- You will be encouraged to consider other students work and give your opinions and suggestions
- A file of work will be kept which will help to record your progress
- There will be a number of tasks appropriate to your course such as written work, creating art or craft, video, photography or small projects. Some of these may be marked to help you progress

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- It would be helpful if you had access to the internet (Mobile phone, tablet or computer at home or through a library etc.)
- Bring a pen and paper. Tablets and laptops can be used but are not essential.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No pre reading or pre course work is required
- Tutor may suggest texts as appropriate and will provide handouts where necessary.
