

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- This is a morning session and it is hoped that learners will leave inspired to join more such sessions.

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- Nothing required for this session apart from an enthusiasm for reading poetry. PLEASE NOTE: There is no fee waiver with this course.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- It would be great if learners could re-read some favourite seasonal poems.

Possible next steps after this course including career opportunities if appropriate

- Progress to another WEA course
- Become involved with the WEA in a range of voluntary work and other activities including campaigning as a WEA member
- It is hoped that a course of 'reading poetry for pleasure', where learners get more involved with the delivery of the material, will be offered in 2018.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept a Learning Agreement. Full details of the Learning Agreement can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/about-us/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
