

3. Discuss three aspects of Elizabeth's religious policies and their consequences.
4. Describe some of the ways in which Elizabeth's unmarried status was both a strength and a weakness during there reign.
5. Choose one key individual from Elizabeth's reign. Describe their role and their relationship with the queen.

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- Nothing else is needed

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No pre-reading is required but students wishing to familiarise themselves with the subject may find Peter Ackroyd's Tudors a useful introduction.

Possible next steps after this course including career opportunities if appropriate

- Progress to another WEA course

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support.
