

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning
- You may be asked to undertake additional work in your own time to support your learning
- Some writing outside the class will be expected, and the tutor is happy to read longer pieces and comment on these.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor
- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning
- You will be encouraged to consider other students work and give your opinions and suggestions
- Feedback from other students is as crucial as tutor feedback, and if you have longer work you'd like the tutor to look at, please say.

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- paper, pen, folder, and a writer's notebook - either paper or electronic.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No booklist, but books and websites will be suggested. Tutor's new books are Mr Bowllly Regrets, poems, and Brand New Beat, stories, both King's England 2017.
