

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- Students will need to have a copy of each text available to them on the appropriate week. The text can be in the form of a hard copy or on an electronic device.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- The following texts should be read in advance of the course: Great Expectations by Charles Dickens and The Way we Live Now by Anthony Trollope

Possible next steps after this course including career opportunities if appropriate

- Progress to another WEA course

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept a Learning Agreement. Full details of the Learning Agreement can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/about-us/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
