

4. See some development in writing techniques in your own work, whether poetry or prose.
5. Write passages in which specific techniques are used for particular aims.

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- Students will present pieces of their own writing, and constructive feedback will be offered by peers and the tutor. Model passages will be presented and voluntary homework will be set. Students will mainly be working on their own pieces of writing.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion

- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor

- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning

- You will be encouraged to consider other students work and give your opinions and suggestions

- There will be a number of tasks appropriate to your course such as written work, creating art or craft, video, photography or small projects. Some of these may be marked to help you progress

- Every student will be able to present a piece of writing during each session and constructive feedback will be offered by the tutor at that time and possibly also online.

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- You will have to bring copies of your own work and also writing materials.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- It is essential for students to engage in a wide variety of reading of a literary nature for their own pleasure.

Possible next steps after this course including career opportunities if appropriate

- Progress to another WEA course

- Enrol in Arvon writing courses and/or any of a wide selection of writing courses advertised in the media. Progress to an MA in writing at Sheffield Hallam University or other university. Continue writing for publication.
