

1. Give up to 3 examples to show how French culture is different from your native one.
2. operate at a basic tourist level in France or another French-speaking country by learning some key phrases, both speaking and listening, in simple (survival) exchanges
3. do some basic research on locale you would like or are intending to visit

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

Participants will work in pairs and groups.

It will be a social occasion, too.

It is a very active course: participants are learning all the time, although there is no pressure on anyone to participate until they feel fully ready to do so.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor
- You will be encouraged to consider other students work and give your opinions and suggestions

The main feedback will be that participants will feel they can speak more and more French as the course progresses.

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- All materials will be provided
- It would be helpful if you had access to the internet (Mobile phone, tablet or computer at home or through a library etc.)

A pocket dictionary or access to an online dictionary.

Pen and paper.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No pre reading or pre course work is required

Possible next steps after this course including career opportunities if appropriate

- Progress to another WEA course

Progress to further French learning, for example: GCSE.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept a Learning Agreement. Full details of the Learning Agreement can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/about-us/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
