Course Aim

This is a partly whimsical, partly serious day, looking at the subject from ancient to modern times. We will consider images of women sometimes famous, sometimes humorous, perhaps dramatic and often by women artists.

Course Description

The potential in the subject "Women in Art" is tremendous, ranging from the ancient to modern world in a variety of relevant areas. There will be a historical chronological progression.

As we move from ancient to modern, conventions change and artists begin to sign their works, and we will see movement from a wide-world view to a personal world.

Along the way we will look at the work of specific female artists despite the domination of men, women who changed the world- including some surprise entries, famous women in history, and the work of modern artists.

Do I need any particular skills or experience?

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. discuss the wide potential in the subject.

2. see a progression in artistic subjects and styles.
3. have a fuller enjoyment of all art.

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>.
