

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning
- You may be asked to undertake additional work in your own time to support your learning
- You will be asked to undertake work each week in preparation for the next class. This will include revision of grammar, with sentences from English into Latin. Also, two set passages of translation - prose and poetry.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor
- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning
- You will be encouraged to consider other students work and give your opinions and suggestions
- Essential to the students' progress is commitment to the preparation of assigned work to be covered in the next class. This enables them to feel directly involved, for any difficulties to be resolved and for general interaction.

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- A basic Latin dictionary and any grammar books the students may wish to use.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- As stated above, GCSE Latin or beyond is the only requirement.

Possible next steps after this course (including career opportunities if appropriate)

- Progress to another WEA course
- Continue with further Latin studies.

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
