Course Aim

for learners to continue their exploration of homeopathy-philosophically and on a practical level.

Course Description

This course is for those who have completed an introductory class and want to continue to share their ideas, to look at the world homeopathically, to explore their own and their families health patterns and to also do more practical case taking and learning of homeopathic remedies. Homeopathy is fascinating, and once you have understood a homeopathic take on illness, health, life-everything looks different! This course is a space for people to explore these ideas further and to understand themselves more as well as to do some practical work and share results with fellow learners.

Do I need any particular skills or experience?

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. explain the difference between acute and chronic illness
2. describe 3 key characteristics of 5 common remedies
3. be more confident at prescribing homeopathic remedies

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning
- role play . tutor led, paper cases. group discussion.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion
- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor
- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning
- You will be encouraged to consider other students work and give your opinions and suggestions

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- pen and paper.
- book-everybodies guide to homeopathic remedies-cummings and ullman

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No pre reading is required but research on the subject on the internet or in the library may be helpful

Possible next steps after this course (including career opportunities if appropriate)

- train to be a homeopath

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
