

What will I achieve?*By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. Identify key factors of the transport infrastructure and methods of transport throughout the period
2. Explore travel in the area and across the world and their relation to local history
3. Identify material evidence of transport systems
4. Explore a variety of contemporary records relating to transport and travel, and of relevant secondary sources, and use material and pictorial evidence and contemporary accounts to formulate ideas and suggest areas for further study
5. Enter into group or plenary discussions on aspects of the course such as coaching inns or emigration

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- Nothing else is needed
- All materials will be provided

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No pre reading or pre course work is required
- A booklist will be provided to the branch so that books from the library service can be made available to students

Possible next steps after this course (including career opportunities if appropriate)

- Progress to another WEA course
- Progress to a course with another provider
- You could undertake individual research, or be part of a group undertaking a local history project. Interest in using original materials might encourage you to undertake a course to pursue your interest further.

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
