

and the group to be actively involved in your learning

- You may be asked to undertake additional work in your own time to support your learning
- Every week a reading will be suggested for the next week's class.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor
- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning
- You may measure your progress in discussion with other members of the class and by means of the WEA's Individual Learning Record.

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- It would be helpful if you had access to the internet (Mobile phone, tablet or computer at home or through a library etc.)
- Nothing is essential. A notebook, a pen and access to the internet might be helpful to you.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No pre reading or pre course work is required
- Nothing is required, but a little reading in advance is always useful. If you were to read one thing before the first session, I would suggest that you read Doris Lessing's first novel, The Grass is Singing.

Possible next steps after this course (including career opportunities if appropriate)

- Progress to another WEA course
- This course is not assessed, nor is it part of any formal progression. Many students will already be members of the WEA. They will also be volunteers in groups and societies of all sorts.

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
