Course Aim This day school will explore the travels, tastes and knowledge of the English gentleman and connoisseur. We will cover the varied collections in the country houses of East Anglia.
Course Description By the 18th century, country houses such as Felbrigg, Holkham and Houghton Hall held some of the most impressive art collections in Britain. These were the product of a new fashion for educating the young gentry by sending them on the Grand Tour of Europe. There they honed their tastes and emptied their pockets, bringing back paintings and sculptures. This session will explore the travels, tastes and knowledge of the English gentleman and connoisseur.
Do I need any particular skills or experience?
What will I achieve? By the end of the course I will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Discuss collecting as a theme with art historical research. Define what the Grand Tour was and how it contributed to the collecting in East Anglia. Analyse the objects in the collections in their original context.

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.

You can enrol online for some courses <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/course-search> or contact: WEA Support Services, Suite 10B Joseph's Well, Hanover Way, Leeds, West Yorkshire, LS3 1AB Tel: 0300 303 3464 Email: courseenquiries@wea.org.uk
