

Do I need any particular skills or experience?

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. approach texts with an enhanced critical appreciation.
2. express opinions and responses with increased confidence.
3. have a greater awareness that there is a wide range of autobiographical writing.
4. have some understanding of how autobiographical writing has developed and changed over time.

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- You may be asked to undertake additional work in your own time to support your learning
- Students will be expected to read certain specific texts in advance of the session in which they will be studied and discussed.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning
- You will be encouraged to consider other students work and give your opinions and suggestions

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- Students will need to obtain their own copies of full texts to be studied. the tutor will provide handouts of extracts from other texts.

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.

You can enrol online for some courses <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/course-search> or contact: WEA Support Services, Suite 10B Joseph's Well, Hanover Way, Leeds, West Yorkshire, LS3 1AB
