Course Aim Exploring Russian folk tales and legends, read in English translation, and their context.
Course Description We shall explore the fascinating world of Russian folk tales. We shall read a variety of folk tales and legends (in English translation), consider the context to the tales, look at the history of recording folk tales in Russia, study approaches to analysing folk tales, and finally get acquainted with modern Russian stories that use folk motifs.
Do I need any particular skills or experience?
What will I achieve? By the end of the course I will be able to: 1. Encounter the myths and legends of pagan Russia. 2. Experience different types of Russian folk tales. 3. Apply various approaches to the analysis of folk tales. 4. Recall the influence of folk tales on Russian literature.
What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class? - The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will be used to provide resources or to support lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. If you want to understand more about our digital learning platform please visit:

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
