Course Aim

The course will consider the vast output of work by the French Impressionist artist Monet, and how his work changed.

Course Description

This course will explore the vast output of work by the French Impressionist artist Monet, his background and how his work changed.

We will include different aspects of Monet's work:

His early paintings, pastels and pencil sketches, series works, travels abroad, Giverny garden.

Do I need any particular skills or experience?

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. Understand the background of Monet's life and career
2. Contribute to constructive discussion about the material being studied
3. Analyse and discuss a wide range of examples of Monet's works
4. Realise the significance of Monet's contribution to Impressionism and the beginnings of Modern Art
5. Consider the ways in which Monet's style changed and how this characterises his career

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will be used to provide resources or to support lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. If you want to understand more about our digital learning platform please visit: <http://bit.ly/WEAonline>
- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will be able to keep a record of your progress and achievement using photos, audio, text or documents uploaded into the WEA's digital learning platform, WEA Canvas.
- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion
- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
