Course Aim

This course will provide an introduction to paper-craft techniques enjoyed by the Victorians in the nineteenth century and provide the opportunity to learn about and enjoy craft activities inspired by the period.

Course Description

Experiment with a range of creative paper-craft activities enjoyed by the Victorians in the nineteenth century. Try your hand at creating a unique diorama greeting card, make a selection of celebration crackers, produce your own Victorian style concertina scrap-book to your own design, and develop your practical and creative skills to make a variety of decorative items. The course will include investigating images of examples of paper-craft from the nineteenth century and will touch on the important influence the Victorians had on the development of greeting cards.

Do I need any particular skills or experience?

- You will need your own personal email address so that you're able to login to the WEA's digital learning platform: WEA Canvas. You will need to be able to understand how to follow URL links to pages on the internet. If you want to understand more about Canvas please visit:

- This course is for a group of around 15 students studying in a live video-learning platform conference and an online digital learning environment platform from the comfort of your own home.
- No skills or experience needed
- This course is suitable for beginners and improvers

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. Have an understanding of Victorian paper craft in its historical context
2. Create 2D and 3D artwork inspired by Victorian examples of images and resources
3. Identify and apply three folding techniques used in card making in the nineteenth century
4. Identify and apply three different forms of embellishment used in Victorian times
5. Know where to access resources for Victorian inspired paper craft

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will be used to provide resources or to support lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. If you want to understand more about our digital learning platform please visit: <http://bit.ly/WEAonline>
- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will be able to keep a record of your progress and achievement using photos, audio, text or documents uploaded into the WEA's digital learning platform, WEA Canvas.
- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor
- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
