Course Aim
This is a Creative Writing Course for beginners and practised writers. Students will try writing both prose and poetry and will then be able to concentrate on the genre they prefer.

Course Description
This course is fully online accessing the course through Canvas our virtual learning environment and zoom a video conferencing software. You will need, reliable internet connection and internet-linked device with camera and microphone.
We will email you links to canvas, please accept these to access the course, the sender will show as “instructure”.
This is a Creative Writing Course for beginners and practised writers. Students will try out both prose and poetry but will then be able to concentrate on the genre they prefer.
The tutor will offer stimuli and prompts each week for writers to treat in their own way. We will listen to what each student has written and comment constructively on their work while taking on board suggestions on how to redraft our own writing

Do I need any particular skills or experience?
- You will need your own personal email address so that you’re able to login to the WEA’s digital learning platform: WEA Canvas. You will need to be able to understand how to follow URL links to pages on the internet. If you want to understand more about Canvas please visit:

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
