- This course is for improvers

- This course is suitable for beginners and improvers

- Students need a level 2 qualification in English to join this course

- This course is for anyone interested in learning more about the biographies of British Prime Ministers (1800 – 1900) and the social, economic and political history of Britain. You will need a good working knowledge of English to take part in the course.

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. Identify Prime Ministers who governed between 1800 and 1900 and describe their political outlooks.
2. Participate in discussions about the governments of different Prime Ministers, what they achieved and the social, political and economic challenges they faced.
3. Identify and describe key historical events and movements that occurred between 1800 and 1900 and explain why they were significant and how government responded to them.
4. Prepare an optional five minute presentation on a Prime Minister (1800 – 1900) of my choice, to share with group members.

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will be used to provide resources or to support lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. If you want to understand more about our digital learning platform please visit:

<http://bit.ly/WEAonline>

- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning

- You may be asked to undertake additional work in your own time to support your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will be able to keep a record of your progress and achievement using photos, audio, text or documents uploaded into the WEA's digital learning platform, WEA Canvas.

- Your tutor will provide written, text and audio feedback recorded in WEA Canvas, WEA's digital learning platform.

- You will be able to keep a digital portfolio of your work on WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas.

- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion

- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor

- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning

- You will be encouraged to consider other students work and give your opinions and suggestions
- A file of work will be kept which will help to record your progress
- There will be a number of tasks appropriate to your course such as written work, creating art or craft, video, photography or small projects. Some of these may be marked to help you progress

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
