Course Aim

To explore how propaganda and fake news has been used to shape people's perceptions of the world from the portraiture of the Tudors and Stuarts to the satirists of the Georgians.

Course Description

Propaganda, in its various guises, permeates our everyday lives via social media, TV, newspapers and much more. The course assesses how portraiture has been used as propaganda in key historical periods such as the Tudors and the Stuarts. It also identifies how satirical representations, such as cartoons, were used in Georgian times to influence people's perceptions of the world, a tradition that continues today.

Do I need any particular skills or experience?

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. appraise how the Tudors used portraiture as a means of propaganda.
2. appraise how the Stuarts used art as a means of propaganda
3. differentiate between the various forms of propaganda e.g, social, political, religious.
4. appraise how the Georgians used cartoons as political satire.

5. Identify the power of visual representations used as propaganda today.

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will be used to provide resources or to support lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. If you want to understand more about our digital learning platform please visit: <http://bit.ly/WEAonline>
- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning
- You may be asked to undertake additional work in your own time to support your learning

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- A range of informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning which may include quizzes, question and answer, small projects and discussion
- You will have opportunities to discuss your progress with your tutor
- You will be encouraged to share your work with the group and discuss your learning

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- What you need: You will need an internet connection, speakers, a microphone and a webcam so that you can use our video learning platform, Zoom. If you'd like to understand more Zoom please visit: <http://bit.ly/ZoomSpec>
- You will also need access to the internet outside of your sessions. You could do this using a smart phone, tablet, laptop or a desktop computer (at home or through a library etc.).
- You will need a personal email address to join the WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas so that you can receive resources, record your progress and achievement and to work with others and share ideas. If you want to understand more about our digital learning platform please visit: <http://bit.ly/WEAonline>
