

Plantagenets ?

2. To develop the ability to ask relevant questions about the past and investigate them critically using a range of sources eg how reliable are contemporary chronicles as evidence of the past?
3. To actively engage in the process of historical enquiry to develop as effective and independent learners and as critical and reflective thinkers
4. To draw parallels with the past seeing their relevance in the modern world eg the xenophobia of England in the 14th-century compared with our world today.
5. To assess the significance of individuals, events, developments and ideas from the past eg the relative merits of the kingship of Edward II compared to Edward III

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.

You can enrol online for most courses <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/course-search> or contact: WEA Support Services, Suite 10B Joseph's Well, Hanover Way, Leeds, West Yorkshire, LS3 1AB Tel: 0300 303 3464 Email: courseenquiries@wea.org.uk
