Course Aim To explore a programme of topics relating to gardening in a broad sense. To provide a forum for discussion of learners' gardening questions and problems.
Course Description Whether you are a beginner or an experienced gardener, this course will build your knowledge of gardens and gardening, and of the skills and techniques necessary to manage a garden. This term, we will concentrate on seasonal jobs, growing plants for food, and exploring the beauty of the spring garden. Topics will include: The Garden in January, The Garden in February: The Garden in March; The Garden in April; Seed sowing; Scented plants for spring; Pruning January - June; Unusual spring bulbs; Structure in the garden; Container Ponds; Vegetables in Small Spaces. The Topic of the Week will be Pests and Diseases.
Do I need any particular skills or experience?
What will I achieve? By the end of the course I will be able to: 1. Plan and carry out seasonal tasks in the garden 2. Grow plants from seed

3. Understand different pruning requirements for trees, shrubs and climbers
4. Plan and grow vegetables in small spaces
5. Create a container pond

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will be used to provide resources or to support lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
