Course Aim This course will help students with a basic understanding of Excel develop their skills to make practical use of it in their business, charity or private activities. It will cover how to use Excel for accounts, record keeping and as a database.
Course Description This course aims to introduce students with the basic understanding of Excel to its practical uses as a business tool. The course will cover how to create spreadsheets for simple accounts and use them for calculations, financial reporting and profit/loss calculations. It will also teach how use Excel to store, sort and filter business information and analyze and interpret it through creating simple databases and reports. The course is especially recommended for sole traders, small businesses and treasurers/secretaries of small charities. It will focus on the practical everyday use of spreadsheets and how to keep them simple and effective in a busy life. Where practical students will be encouraged to work on spreadsheets based on their own, real, businesses needs and draw on the experience of the tutor and other students.
Do I need any particular skills or experience?
What will I achieve? By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. List the basic accounting principles that underline designing a spreadsheet for accounts
2. Create a spreadsheet to keep track of income and expenditure for a small business or charity
3. Use Excel as a project planner i.e. event / stock planning
4. Construct a simple database to store information such as contact details, stock etc.
5. Demonstrate how to protect the quality of data in a database by passwords, drop down menus and data validation

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
