2. Create a piece of artwork that tells a story and has some sort of social commentary in it, inspired by the artist's work and developed by your ideas.
3. Show progression in a sketchbook that demonstrates at least two different techniques, inspired by his work
4. Talk to the group or write about your artwork with a more positive outlook than you did before this course, embracing the quote 'Your mistakes are your style'.
5. Create a piece of art, inspired by an object in your home, which reflects who you are as an artist.
