Course Aim To provide a vocabulary to describe visual works of art and to enhance recognition of the functions and contexts behind paintings produced in Europe in the seventeenth century.
Course Description Using examples by artists working in Europe in the seventeenth century, the course will include close-views of work by Artemisia Gentileschi, Poussin, Rubens, Velázquez, Rembrandt, Vermeer and Rachel Ruysch. The course will suit those taking an interest in seventeenth century European paintings for the first time and also provide the opportunity to close-view selected paintings for those wishing to refine and develop their understanding and viewing skills. A specific itemised calendar will be provided on day one which could lead you to research some of the works by the artists involved.
Do I need any particular skills or experience?
What will I achieve? By the end of the course I will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Use a vocabulary to describe visual works of art. 2. Enhance your recognition of the functions behind art produced in Europe in the seventeenth century.

3. Begin to recognise intrinsic and extrinsic contexts for visual art works.
4. Begin to recognise aspects of style in seventeenth century European painting.
5. Consider the contexts for paintings in the seventeenth century.

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will be used to provide resources or to support lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. If you want to understand more about our digital learning platform please visit: <http://bit.ly/WEAonline>
- The WEA tutor will use a range of different teaching and learning methods and encourage you and the group to be actively involved in your learning
- You may be asked to undertake additional work in your own time to support your learning
- Students are provided with a detailed itinerary of works displayed and discussed at each session. The tutor provides a weekly online web page, giving the content from the previous sessions. An indication of sites to visit is provided during the course.

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- You will be able to keep a record of your progress and achievement using photos, audio, text or documents uploaded into the WEA's digital learning platform, WEA Canvas.
- You will be able to keep a digital portfolio of your work on WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas.
- A file of work will be kept which will help to record your progress

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
