

1. appreciate how the art deco style evolved in Paris in the early 1920's
2. understand how the Paris Exposition promoted this new style
3. Understand how British ceramic designers were inspired by and responded to the popular style by creating new shapes and patterns
4. identify the factors why many pottery manufacturers were unable to capture the true Art Deco style
5. Identify why Art Deco went out of style and how modernism changed how designers responded to patterns and shapes

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will be used to provide resources or to support lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. If you want to understand more about our digital learning platform please visit: <http://bit.ly/WEAonline>

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- The course will feature an informal session where learners can show examples from their own collection for discussion

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- What you need: You will need an internet connection, speakers, a microphone and a webcam so that you can use our video learning platform, Zoom. If you'd like to understand more Zoom please visit: <http://bit.ly/ZoomSpec>

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- The tutor will create a list of further reading and links to you tube films were applicable

- Progress to another WEA course
- Visit some of the museums that display art deco ceramics

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.
