The Theme(s) used in planning your course is/ are:
1. Community Engagement	2. Employability

Course Aim

You will start reading for pleasure by looking at some simple stories. The course will help you to enjoy reading and talking about texts. You will practise reading and become more confident talking about your ideas online.

Course Description

During this course, you will read stories and talk about them. You will be encouraged to learn on your own as well as with others. You will also become better at using the computer to do fun activities.

Do I need any particular skills or experience?

What will I achieve?

By the end of the course I will be able to:

1. Read stories.
2. Talk about ideas.
3. Discuss characters.
4. Get better at talking about ideas
5. Learn new words.

What teaching methods will be used and will there be work outside of the class?

- Zoom with discussion and group activities
- Canvas with online activities

What kind of feedback can I expect from the tutor?

- Some informal activities will be used by the tutor to see what you are learning. You also check your learning automatically on Canvas.

What else do I need to know? Is there anything I need to bring?

- You will need access to the internet via smart phone, tablet, or desktop computer. You will need a personal email address to join the WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas, so that you can learn online.

Pre-course work, reading and information sources

- No pre reading or pre course work is required

Possible next steps after this course (including career opportunities if appropriate)

- ESOL Entry Level 3

Learning with the WEA

WEA courses increasingly make use of the rich variety of educational tools and material available on the internet and from digital devices. The WEA's digital learning platform, Canvas will play an increasing role in all WEA courses to provide resources or support, or to conduct lessons, enable assessment, provide learner feedback and for other activities for individuals away from the course. It is helpful, although not essential if you have access to a computer or smartphone to support your course.

You can read about your entitlements and responsibilities as a WEA student in our leaflet, Student Handbook here <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/student-support> This includes information on fees, learning support and financial support. As part of your course you accept our Learning Agreement and Privacy Notice. Full details of the Learning Agreement and privacy notice can be found on our website at <http://www.wea.org.uk/policies>. This applies to all courses you take in this academic year.

You can enrol online for most courses <http://www.wea.org.uk/learn-wea/course-search> or contact: WEA Support Services, Suite 10B Joseph's Well, Hanover Way, Leeds, West Yorkshire, LS3 1AB
